1. BILL GATES EVIL IS BEYOND HUMAN NATURE

I have been interested in human nature, not a topic of my interest since my youth. But since the success of my Four-Sphere Theory my thirst for knowledge expanded, and I began study of human beings. My main finding here is the existence of an angelic human nature by and large. World Values Survey had been my major source then. I have written about how human race is mostly angelic, roughly a 95%-5% divide for who falls in the Rousseau Exponential and who in the Hobbes Exponential, on moral values. But Bill Gates not only falls in the Hobbes Exponential; his evil is so rare that he falls outside the bounds of human nature.

I won't tell you too much about empirical evidence of Bill Gates malevolence. Science in the current primitive age is too weak to be able to detect the ways that Bill Gates acts. He uses 'power' to harm others, and they, and I am a prime example, are diagnosed with schizophrenia for the harm that we face from high power criminals like Bill Gates. High power institutions like Harvard Board, United Nations Security Council, and the United States Government have the capability to verify that my accusations against Bill Gates are true.

Bill Gates has occupied my personal meta for more than a year while United States Government, sworn by US Declaration of Independence Preamble to secure my natural rights did nothing to stop him. Bill Gates, being an illiterate hick without sufficient high school education, had claimed 'white conquest rights' for this outrageous insolent. The United States Government did not even arrest the war criminal despite these outrages.

As my dear readers know, at the end of the Second World War, all 'conquest rights' were repealed, so Bill Gates' rationale for his war crimes on American Soil have no merit.

I understand this rotten deceiving dyed-in-the-wool murderous criminal quite intimately well, but the issue is not what he is like. He is a rotten criminal. What is disturbing is that United States Government allows him to operate in the country instead of totally destroying him. That is extremely alarming for America and the world. His achievements have been menial, and are no justification for mollicoddling my United States Government. I am far more important for America and the world than him. Why does United States Government allow me to be mistreated in such a brutal and savage manner?

As my reader can imagine, even if it is unorthodox to attempt to eliminate the entire United States of America based on what the government does in this situation between Bill Gates and myself, I live only once and will consider it quite heavily justified, a matter of sacred duty to proceed to do exactly the elimination of the United States of America unless Bill Gates is totally neutralised by the government.

My natural rights and my dreams for my future are worth more than 20,000 United States.
